CANCELLATION POLICY. The instructors at The Ridgewood Conservatory are professional musicians currently performing in the tri-state area. In the event that a teacher is unable to be present during a regularly scheduled appointment time due to performance responsibilities, the lesson/rehearsal will be covered by another instructor at the scheduled day and time or will be rescheduled for another date during the semester. A maximum of three times will be offered.

Lessons or rehearsals cancelled by students WILL NOT be rescheduled. (Private instruction lesson times may be adjusted to accommodate a change in the student's school schedule only if the instructor has another time slot available.)

INCLEMENT WEATHER CANCELLATION POLICY. In the event of inclement weather, please call us to find out if we will be open. We will try to post an announcement on our answering machine by 1pm M-F (8am S-S) regarding closing information for private instruction, and by 8am M-S for Early Childhood programs. If The Conservatory is closed, each instructor will designate one make-up day at least one week later. We encourage you to take advantage of this make-up opportunity as we cannot ask our instructors to come back a second day.

Fall semester starts on 8/30/10 for Private Instruction, and on 9/13/10 for Dance and Early Childhood Music.

Current students must re-register by 8/15/10 to re-claim a Spring time slot and avoid the $25 Registration Fee. (Time slots not re-claimed by 8/15/10 will be given away on a first-come, first-served basis.)
